MAGNIFICENT THE STREET SPECTACLE

That Concluded Wheeling's "Roose velt Day" Last Night,-Nearly 2.500 Were in Line.

ALL WERE UNIFORMED CLUBS

With but a Few Exceptions, and the Parade Has Been Seldom Equalled in Wheeling.

40,000 TO 50,000 SPECTATORS

Lined the Streets and Cheered the Marchers - Visitors Were Nicely Entertained.

H-0-0-r-a-y! Last night's pageant was a fitting close of the day's festivities incident to the coming of the gallant and intrepid "Teddy" Roosevelt to the city of Wheeling. It was a monster parade, the parallel of which has not been seen in many a day. Where they all came from is a mystery, and the proportions of the demonstration must have struck terror into the ranks of the Democracy. required forty-five minutes to pass a The column was over ar hour in ferming, and it was 9 o'clock before it appeared on Market street and began the long march. It was after 11 o'clock when the column disbanded.

It has been a long tme sace such en-thusiasm as was manifested last night has been experienced in Wheeling. Tons of red fire was consumed, and Romar candles and sky rockets galore punetured the atmosphere and Illuminated the firmament. The whole distance, from Seventh to Thirty-ninth streets, was lined with humanity, and enthusi-asm was rampant. Had "Teddy" re-mained for the street demonstration his besom certainly would have swelled with pride on witnessing the magnifi-cent demonstration in his honor. A notable feature was the prevalence of Rough Rider companies, and right here it will be proper to say that this city did herself proud with her Rough Rider regiment. All during the afternoon the clubs from this city were busy receiving the visiting clubs, and they will go home with pleasant memories of their treat-ment here. The Pittsburgh clubs particularly were out in force, and the Tariff and Americus clubs were cheered all along the line of march.

The column marched along the following line of march: Fourteenth to Market: on Market to Seventh: on Seventh to Main; on Main to Twelfth; on Twelfth to Market; on Market to Twentieth; on Twentieth to Chapline; on Chapline to Thirty-third; on Thirtythird to Eoff; on Eoff to Thirty-ninth; Thirty-ninth to Jacob; on Jacob to Thirty-third; on Thirty-third to Eoff; on Eoff to Twenty-third; on Twenty-third to Chapline; on Chapline to Twenty-second; on Twenty-second to Market; on Market to Fourteenth and dis-

The column was headed by four mounted police officers, and the line of march was as follows:

There were 2,370 men in the parade, all told. As the column marched up Market street in the full glare of the lights of the arches it presented a sight that will not soon be forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to witness it. A wild hurral greeted the pageant it swung around the corner of Fourttenth street and began the march up Market street. Both sides of the street were congested with human-Ity, as to make it impossible to move one way or the other. Once wedged in the crowd it was impossible to get out.

There were thousands of visitors in the city, and great was the number of strange faces seen along our streets. The adjacent towns sent their quota and many came from afar-Pittsburgh, Parkersburg and other cities. . The parade was a glittering climax to the fes tivities of the day, and it will go down in history as one of the greatest political demonstrations that ever took place in this city.

Invitation to Pittsburgh.

Sheriff McKinley, of Allegheny coun ty, who was down with the Republican Tariff club, of Pittsburgh, and marched over the entire route with the boys, was one of the most enthusiastle men in the city. The sheriff, speaking for the Republicans of Pittsburgh, requested Mr. M. H. McNabb, secretary pf the real demonstration committee, to invite the Wheeling clubs to participate in an immense parade to be given in the Smoky City Saturday afternoon, November 3. The Americas Cubb, through Mr. W. W. Coleville, requested Mr. McNabb to invite the Elkins Cadets to be their guests upon that date. There is no doubt that Wheeling will return the Pittsburghers' visit and go up almost to a man. was one of the most enthusiastic men

Parade Notes.

Where were the Democrats? The Sewickley, Pa., club made a natty appearance in their white helmets, blue conts, white trousers and

The Americus club's ovation all along the line was terrific. Say girls, did any of those handsome Americus club boys wink at you?

General Apathy was confined to his bed last night with a severe attack of

The Henry twins at the head of the Pittsburgh Tariff ciub were the pets of the demonstration.

The Lincoln Club, of New Brighten, made a swell appearance in their white tiles and umbrellas.

The Second ward Rough Riders, o Pittsburgh, introduced an innovation and carried lanterns.

That predicted frost of the Register's was eaten up by the warm sun of Re-publican enthusiasm.

Greater Pittsburgh turned out more organizations than had ever visited Wheeling in any campaign.

The pocket edition drum major lead-ng the Sewickley band was dubbed 'cute" by the young ladies. The Sewickley club and the Ernsworth boys arrived at 8 o'clock p. m., and maybe they didn't look swell.

The Elkins Cadets showed up in old time form last night and are acquiring their old time prestige among the girls. An elongated fellow, garbed as "Un-cle Sam," created much merriment along the line of march. He measured over six feet.

The Six Footers, of this city, made a great showing and their drilling, under the efficient Captain Emil Smith, was par excellence.

The Pittsburgh bleyele club was headed by two buglers on a tandem, and they, as well as the club, were favorably commented upon.

The Edgewater Republican Club, in white sailor uniforms, were one of the best drilled clubs in the parade, and they certainly looked fine.

The sailors and soldiers, of Pitts-burgh, that saw service in the Spanish war, made a nice appearance and came in for a lion's share of the applause. The Homested Rough Riders claim the distinction of being the first Rough Rider company organized. They were formed on the third day of last July.

The route of the parade was too long, a fault that is common in Wheel-ing. Several clubs were forced to drop out before the lower portion of the city was reached. A feature of the night parade was the almost continuous ovation Captain Dovens: received along the line of march. Evidently the captain is solid with his constituents.

The Americus Club, of Pittsburgh, made an old time showing. They certainly looked handsome in their uniforms consisting of white plug hats, black capes and umbrelias. The Cadiz band of twenty-two pieces, under the lead of Colonel Frank Atkinson, serenaded this office before the parade. There is nothing the matter with the Cadiz boys when it comes to good music.

The Tariff club's quintette headed by Charley Harris, rendered a number of very clever selections in the McLure house lobby after the parade, much to the delight of a large and appreciative gathering. The boys know how to sing.

BROOKLYN WINS THE SERIES.

The Pittsburgh Ciub Was Outclassed by the Champions.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 18.-The ugony is over. Brooklyn is champion of the world, base-ballically, the owner of the beautiful $500 Chronicle-Telegraph trophy cup, and carries away one-half the gate receipts of the four games nec-essary to decide their supremacy over Bitteburgh. The champions deemed Pittsburgh. The champions demon-strated throughout the series that they strated throughout the series that they were descriping of the League pennant by playing better ball in every way than their opponents who finished second in the race. In only one game of the four played did Pittsburgh look to be in the same class with Brooklyn That game was played yesterday and the victory so encouraged the Pitts-burgh players and the local fans that the 2,335 people who attended the game to-day really expected to see the victo-day really expected to see the vic-tory repeated. The Pittsburgh team went to work to-day with great deter-mination and every point was worked to the limit by both sides up to the fourth inning, when three hits and a fumble by Leever netted three runs to Brooklyn. After that the locals seemed to lose their snap and while they played hard to win, it was conceded by the specators that the home team was outclassed. Waddell was put in the Waddell was put in the outclassed. Waddell was put in the box as a forlorn hope, but the handleap was too great. McGinnlity won his second game in the series by keeping the hits well scattered and by receiving the finest kind of support. Lave Cross was especially effective in spoiling his by retting numerous balls speaking to. outclassed. by getting numerous balls speeding toward left field and making wonderfully fast throws to Jennings.

Remembered McGinnity.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 18.—The Brooklyn team went out of training immediately after the game to-day and to-night indulged in a jubilee dinner at their hotel. As a mark of appreciation and acknowledgment, that to his bril-Hant work on the rubber, the success of the club was largely due, the team by unanimous consent decided to turn over to Pitcher McGinnity, the handsome trophy cup, it to be his personal property forever. The twirler was greatly surprised on being made the recipient of this token of esteem on the part of his fellow players, and he was at a loss for words to express his feel-ings. The Brooklyn management gave McGinnity $199 extra for his good work.

About two hundred people congregated at the Wheeling & Lake Eric railroad station yesterday, to get a glimpse of our next vice president, Governor Theodore Roosevelt, on his flying trip through this city en route to Wheeling. The crowd began to gather about 11:30, the report having been circulated that he would reach here fifteen minutes later. The train pulled into the station at exactly 1 o'clock, thirty minutes late, and consequently his five minute address was cut down to a few words of welcome. Everything available in the neighborhood of the station had been decorated with the national colors and everything prepared to make his short stop in this city an enjoyable one. The governor addressed the audience from the rear platform of his special train in a very few words, which were: "My fellow citizens, it is plainly evident that I have nothing to teach the people of this city, but have only to learn from from. Ohio is all right you are all right."
